

TECHNICAL INFORMATION LAEISZHALLE BRAHMS FOYER

Last updated: 1 July 2016

1. Hall

1.1. Podium and Auditorium

The Brahms Foyer serves as the culinary hub of the Laeiszhalle, offering a refined selection of food and drinks before, during and after concerts held in the Grand Hall. Its historic architecture creates a unique atmosphere, making it ideal for receptions, intimate chamber concerts, photo shoots and film productions. Please note that there is no fixed, permanent stage.

The space includes seating for around 80 people, spread across 22 tables and 24 bar tables, with standing capacity for up to 200 people. In consultation with the company Elbphilharmonie und Laeiszhalle Betriebsgesellschaft mbH, some of the furniture can be removed.

Main entrance: Johannes-Brahms-Platz

Entrance for wheelchair users: The designated wheelchair entrance is located on Gorch-Fock-Wall, to the right of the Recital Hall main entrance. Ringing the external doorbell allows visitors to gain access.

A passenger lift with access to the Brahms Foyer is available at the front staircases on the left side of the Grand Hall. It has a load capacity of 750 kg (or up to 10 people) and is suitable for folding wheelchairs or narrow wheelchairs (up to 75 cm wide).

1.2. High-Voltage Connections

Located on both the left and right sides of the curved walls near the fuse boxes: CEE sockets, 2 x 32 amps.

1.3. Sound

A lectern and a loudspeaker system are available for voice amplification. These can be rented through the company Elbphilharmonie und Laeiszhalle Betriebsgesellschaft mbH. Prices are listed in the price list or available on request.

2. Load-In and Logistics

Artists' and suppliers' entrance: Dammtorwall 46
